

GERMAN ADVANCE CHECKED

Both Sides Admit Mackensen's "Push" to Dobruja Is Held Up—Bulgarians Falling Back Before Serbians.

Germans Repulsed in Somme Attack.

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 21.—FIELD MARSHAL VON MACKENSEN'S ADVANCE THROUGH THE ROMANIAN PROVINCE OF DOBRUDJA HAS BEEN CHECKED FOR THE TIME AT LEAST, ACCORDING TO ACCOUNTS FROM BOTH SIDES.

Bucharest yesterday announced a check of von Mackensen's armies and the line of defense taken by the Roumanians and Russians, who have been heavily reinforced.

Today, a statement by the Sofia War Office concedes the stubbornness of their resistance and reports the Entente armies still holding their strongly fortified positions. Reports regarding the fighting in the Florina district, in northwestern Macedonia, are conflicting. Accounts from Entente sources have asserted the Bulgarians were falling back on Serbian territory and preparing to defend Monastir. Sofia, however, announces a turn in the fighting favorable to the Bulgarian forces, declaring that counter attacks resulted in the repulse of the Allied troops with heavy losses.

Further south in the mountainous country along the Serbian border, the engagement is heavy all along the line. On the far western end of the line, the Allies are making progress, but apparently are attempting no serious thrusts in either the Vardar or Struma regions.

The defeat of the Germans in desperate counter attacks along the Somme front, reported last night by Paris, has been followed by comparative quiet in this region. The bad weather reported during the last few days is continuing, and apparently the Anglo-French forces are awaiting its cessation before renewing their efforts to advance. Activity has been resumed by the French in the Verdun region, attacks on the east bank of the Meuse driving them two trenches and some ground east of Fort Vaux and the Chapitre Wood.

NEW ZEALANDERS HOLD THE LINE

The British, as well as the New Zealanders, have been subjected to heavy attacks by the Germans on the Somme front. Continuous assaults were made last night on positions held by the New Zealanders south of the Ancre. London reports every attack was repulsed.

HEAVY GERMAN LOSS

The Germans lost heavily in casualties and prisoners, the British managing to effect some gain of ground despite the incessant German onslaught.

On the eastern front, Petrograd announces an offensive movement by the Germans along the Stokhod, in Volhynia, but declares all attacks were repulsed and several hundred Germans captured.

RUSSIANS ADVANCE

In the Carpathians, the Russians report an advance near Panther Mountain, where a position on a height was captured.

No further progress for the Roumanians in their invasion of southern Transylvania is reported, but Bucharest announces that the Roumanian troops that recently were forced back to the border losing Petrosini and the Szurdok Pass have halted their retirement and are fortifying their new position.

In further reports today of the Dobrudja battle, Bucharest declares the Russians and Roumanians repulsed all attacks and in several cases turned on the Teutonic Allies and delivered counter attacks.

GREECE UNCERTAIN

In the Balkan situation, Greece remains an uncertain quantity.

A new factor in the internal situation appears today in the report that a revolution has broken out in the Greek Isle of Crete, where a provisional government is said to have been set up.

FOR LARGER PATRIOTISM

Candidate Hughes Wants to See a Great Driving Force of Patriotic Sentiment.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Lafayette, Ind., September 21.—Charles E. Hughes, in a brief open air speech here today, outlined the policies for which he stands.

"I want American rights protected throughout the world," he said.

"I desire to see a great driving force of patriotic sentiment which will give us the motive power of progress.

"We cannot have progress unless we have that loyalty and love for our country which will enable us to get up steam to supply energy.

"I say that American rights must be protected throughout the world, with respect due American lives, property, and commerce—with respect to all nations of the world."

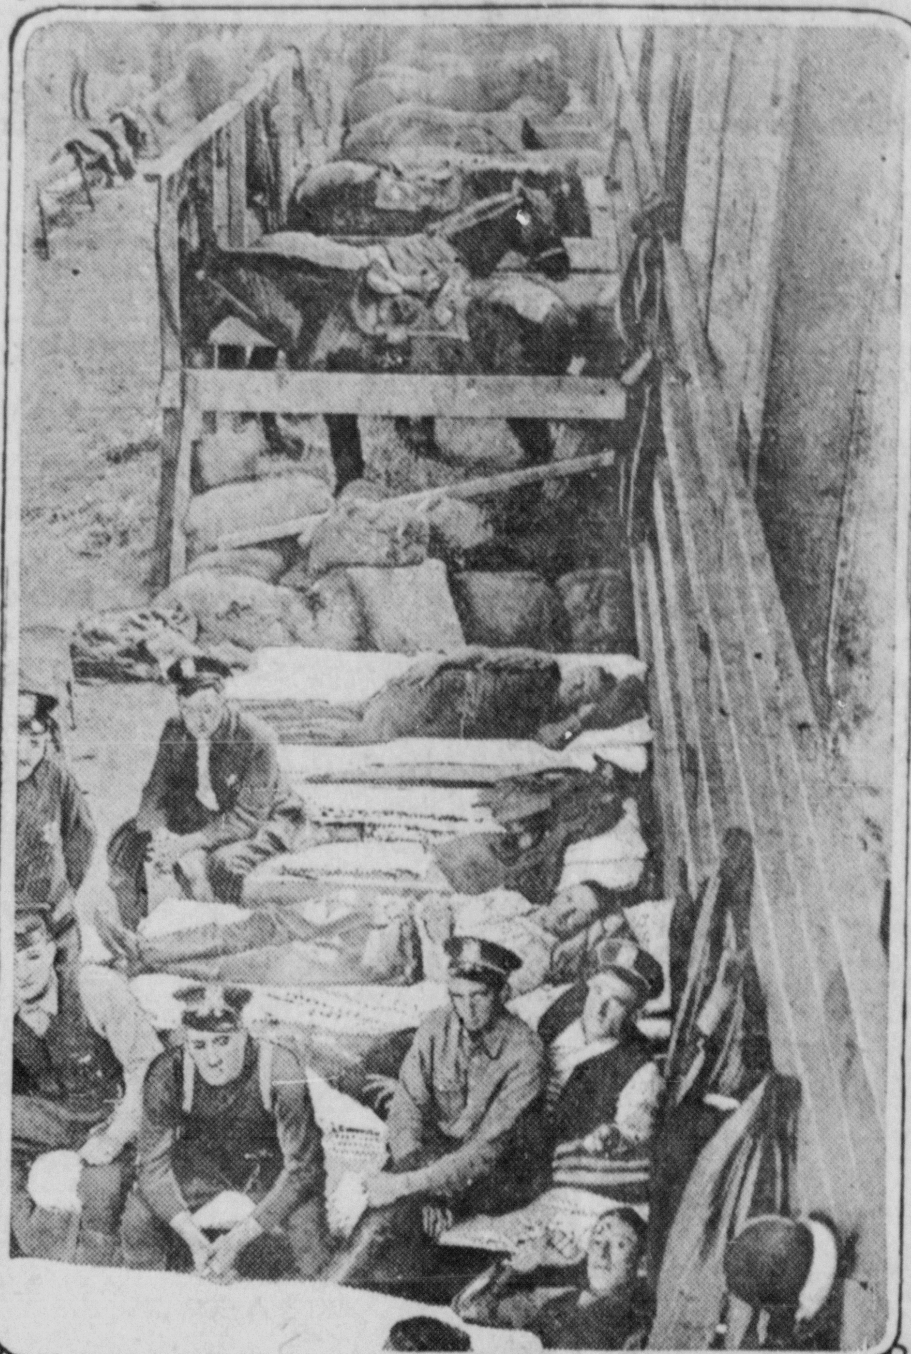

FRIEND OF LABOR

He declared that "the pathway of surrender to force leads only to civil war in the end" and said he stood firmly for arbitration of industrial disputes.

Mr. Hughes asserted he was a friend of labor, "as everyone in this country must be; for we are all laborers in this country, and we have all got to go up or down together."

Mr. Hughes said he supported the protective tariff as a sound American doctrine, and that it would have to be applied to enable America to meet European competition after the war.

New York Police Camp on Pier, Held Ready for Strike Duty

NEW YORK POLICE HELD READY FOR STRIKE DUTY

"The policeman's life is not a happy one," says a character in one of Gilbert and Sullivan's operas, and New York's "cops" have proved the truth of the saying in these days of traction strikes, for they are called upon to do much extra work.

Here's a bunch of mounted policemen encamped on a North river pier. They are being held in readiness to meet possible emergencies arising from the unrest among the longshoremen, who sympathize with the traction strikers.

SWEPTON SHIFTS WHOLE BLAME

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Ohio, September 21.—In reply to charges that he had permitted a federal prisoner to enjoy liberty outside the jail, Sheriff Alonzo Swopton, of Ross county, had filed a formal answer in United States Court here in which he says that the United States deputy marshal who took the prisoner to Chillicothe had declared that he had orders to ask the sheriff to give the prisoner all the liberty and good treatment possible; that the prisoner was a good fellow, and that he was punished wrongfully.

The answer also says the deputy marshal, without the sheriff's consent, took the prisoner to the residence of James Taylor, in Chillicothe, where they had supper, and did not return the prisoner to the jail until the sheriff had gone to bed.

WILL COMPEL ARBITRATION BY STRIKERS

Time to Change Slogan, "Public Be Damned," to "The Public Be Protected," Says Chairman Regan.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER 21.—(BULLETIN) — ARBITRATION OF THE CITY'S TRANSIT STRIKE WILL BE ENFORCED BY THE STATE BOARD OF ARBITRATION IT WAS ANNOUNCED HERE TODAY BY M. J. REGAN, A MEMBER OF THE BOARD.

Hearings will be held, beginning Monday, and both sides will be directed to present testimony.

Asserting that the strike is "the most menacing labor situation that has ever threatened the peace and prosperity of the city's population," Mr. Regan declared that if a general sympathetic trade strike was called, the safety and livelihood of "six or seven millions of people in this corner of the state" would be endangered.

"It is time that the expression, 'The public be damned,' be changed to the new slogan, 'the public be protected!'"

INCREASE SHOWN

(Associated Press Dispatch)
New York, September 21.—

Twenty-six new cases of infantile paralysis are shown in today's report.

This is an increase of eight over yesterday's figures. There were six deaths, four fewer than yesterday.

William B. Fitzgerald, head of a delegation of labor leaders, said this afternoon that the strikers would go back to work provided the traction companies would without discrimination restore all union men discharged from their positions, would live up to the agreement of August 6, 7, and 30, and submit to arbitration the injustice of the "master and servant" contracts entered into by the traction companies with some of their employees.

NIGHT OF RIOTING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 21.—Rioting continued last night and today in connection with the efforts of the transportation companies to operate cars on surface and elevated lines.

Two thousand policemen were on duty in the center of the city last night, but this did not prevent strike sympathizers from bombarding cars with bricks and other missiles.

Twenty-two attacks upon elevated trains were reported during the early hours today, the attacks being made from housetops along the line of the elevated trains. Car windows were smashed and a number of passengers injured.

A committee of business men tried to persuade labor leaders to refrain from declaring a general strike in sympathy with the car men now out.

SYMPATHY STRIKE

This is the last day of grace given by the union men to settle the dispute before the general walk out is to be called.

If no settlement is reached, the strike call, labor leaders say, will be issued tomorrow, to take effect Monday.

It is said that the citizens' committee has little hope of averting the strike.

It was reported today that some of the unions are averse to calling a strike, owing to the fact that they have contracts with their employers which would be violated by a strike.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, September 21.—National Guardsmen and Regulars—twenty-six thousand of them—in dust-stained khaki swung through the streets of El Paso and passed a reviewing stand at Fort Bliss today in the first parade and review of an infantry division at full war strength ever held in the United States.

Military men said also that a larger number of troops were in line than at any other time in the history of the country with the exception of the grand review in Washington at the close of the Civil War.

Participating in the review were troops from the Regular Army, from Massachusetts, Michigan, Kentucky, Ohio, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and New Mexico—in all, 799 officers and 25,941 men, with 8,000 animals and 1,000 vehicles.

COMMISSION IN GENERAL TALK

Question of Withdrawing Troops Not Taken Up Specifically.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New London, Conn., September 21.—The question of the withdrawal of the American troops in Mexico was discussed by the Mexican-American conferees, but without an agreement being reached, today.

The Mexican representatives made no demand or request for their withdrawal, and the consideration of the problem is understood to have been of a rather general character. The American commissioners spent most of the time today discussing with the Mexicans documentary reports relative to general conditions in Mexico.

The Mexican commissioners conferred among themselves in the afternoon, the joint conference being adjourned until tomorrow.

LAD IS STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Ralph Graham, Ten-year-old Boy of the "Point" Narrowly Escapes Death By Leaping From Rear of Gravel Wagon as Auto Is Passing.

Because he was on the rear end of a gravel wagon and leaped off just as an automobile was in the act of passing the wagon, Ralph Graham, 10 year old lad of "The Point," narrowly escaped death about 4:15 Wednesday afternoon, and was picked up badly injured.

The lad had been riding the gravel wagon and did not see the automobile, and as the youngster was on the rear of the wagon and could not be seen by the auto driver, nothing could prevent the lad being struck when he leaped from the wagon directly in front of the auto.

Fortunately for the boy the machine was not going at a very rapid pace, but still was going too fast to stop. The boy was knocked to the street and rendered unconscious, and the driver stopped his machine and turning about, hurried the lad to a physician's office where a scalp wound was closed and the injured lad was taken to his home. His recovery is expected to be speedy.

A number of similar accidents have been narrowly averted in the city recently, and the recent accident is expected to be a warning to boys who have been in the habit of riding vehicles and leaping off suddenly.

FOR RENT — Five rooms in modern house. Mrs. Henry Link, 321 Washington Ave. 223 t6

OBITUARY.

Chas. W. Mark, son of Alfred H. and Mary J. Mark was born March 16, 1864 and departed this life Sept. 7, 1916, aged 52 years, 5 months and 21 days.

He attained his majority under the guidance of largely respected parental christian environment and believed as he had been taught that it was one of the sacred duties of life to remember with beneficent hand and benevolent heart the principles set forth in the sacred pages of the Bible, and the lessons he had learned and never forgotten, among which was this "It is better to give than to receive."

In the love of giving was God, to him, for God had prospered him and to give was to honor God. So he freely gave of his substance for the establishment of God's cause and his house, the church and its organizations.

And the things he most loved and greatly revered were his family, his wife, his children. And ever thoughtful of his aged and widowed mother, the pall and sorrow that this sad occasion has brought to her, his wife, these children and his brother J. B. Mark, as well as a host of friends, is a sorrow almost inexpressible. Words are inadequate, but we commend him to God, his spirit to Eternity.

He was married to Martha J. Bush, who died some twelve years ago, and later on July 3, 1906, he was united in marriage to Mary A. Rogers, to this union two little daughters have been born, Charlene, aged 8 years, and Georgiana aged 4 years.

Sometime When the winds are soft and skies are fair, And fresh-lipped flowers are everywhere, And birds-songs in the balmy air, Perchance I'll see On the troubled waters a gleaming sail.

And I shall know that a boatman pale Has come for me.

Sometime It may be at noon on a summer's day 'Mid the heat of toil, I shall pass away, And sweetly sleep through the long, long day, Forgetting care, And the sheaf will drop from the reaper's hand, And lie unbound where the stubbles stand, And there will be grief in the family band I shall not share.

Sometime It may be when the sheaves are gathered in And the corn is drawn to the waiting bin, And the goodly fruit is stored within, And the bright leaves fall, I shall look my last on the sunset's gold, And joyfully pass to the heavenly fold At the Master's call.

Sometime It may be at a morn of a winter's night, I shall pass from darkness into light And, wearing a garment pure and white, Seek the bright shore; It matters not what the hour may be, Or the place—if the angels wait for me. At the heavenly door!

GIRLS CONTESTING

By Associated Press Dispatch. Columbus, O., Sept. 21.—Twenty-seven girls are contesting with hundreds of boys in various parts of the state in the corn-raising contest. The prize in each county is a trip to Washington. The advice of the board of agriculture, which is managing the Washington trips for boys and girls, was that the girls confine themselves to the domestic science contests, but a number of the girls evidently thought they were just as good farmers as their brothers and are working at their acre of corn.

So far 256 trips have been offered the boys and 131 trips to the girls. Julia Beauchamp, 15 year old girl of Pike County, is said to have brought her acre of corn along nicely and is promised a big yield. She has expressed the hope that she will win the state championship from the boys and show that it is not necessary to be a man to be a farmer.

FREE TO MANUFACTURE ALCOHOL OF GARBAGE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Columbus, O., Sept. 21.—City Attorney Scarlett has received a report from C. C. Shepard, patent attorney, relative to patent rights existing on the process for manufacturing alcohol from garbage which is being tested out at the garbage reduction plant. The city is testing the process under an agreement with James J. Morgan, of Chicago, that Columbus is to have the right to manufacture the product for having demonstrated it, but to avoid complications with other chemical companies that might have features of the process patented, it was thought advisable to get a report from the patent office before expending money in an extension to the reduction plant for the making of the product.

The report of the attorney shows that a patent on part of the process expired in 1869 and because of this Morgan was not given a broad patent but received a patent on details that enter into the manufacture of the product. This clears the way for the city to enter into the manufacture of alcohol and it is expected that an addition to the garbage plant will now be erected. The city council authorized a bond issue for this purpose recently.

A test of the process has been made and alcohol was produced, authorities at the state university said that it would not be commercially available until an odor it carries has been eliminated. A process for this purpose is now being developed and it is believed a solution has been found.

Fire Prevention Day

Governor Willis has issued a proclamation calling upon the people of Ohio to observe October 9th as fire and accident prevention day in any manner which will impress upon them the necessity for the observance of "safety first" rules in regard to the preservation of life and property.

By so doing the chief executive of the state has officially placed Ohio in the column of states which are going to make systematic and thorough endeavor to reduce the menace to life and limb and property, to a minimum.

Whether October 9th is observed in a manner which will produce an impression on the minds of the people sufficient to cause them to exercise caution in the every day affairs of life so as to preserve not only themselves but their neighbors' life and property, is up to the people themselves.

The national organization has chosen a very appropriate day upon which to impress upon the people the necessity of being in order to prevent fires.

It was on October 9th, forty-five years ago, that Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over the lamp in the little old stable in Chicago and started a conflagration which resulted in the loss of millions of dollars in property damage and cost many precious lives.

That was carelessness. Mrs. O'Leary should not have had an oil lamp in the old tumbled down stable, on a windy evening while she was milking a cow of uncertain disposition and possessing, like some people, a decided tendency to kick on slight provocation.

The cause of the great Chicago fire—carelessness—is the cause of thousands of fires every year and millions of dollars of damage.

It is with a view to removing that carelessness that we must be mindful of our conduct. A day each year to impress this need upon us may help.

The Pumpkin Shows

With the close of the county fair season and the fall races the fall festivals take the center of the stage among the popular sectional gatherings.

The pumpkin shows, so called, have grown immensely in popularity in the smaller agricultural cities and towns during the last decade. They have developed into real trade carnivals displaying in attractive manner the offerings of the community merchants as well as the products of the soil from the rural sections.

These fall festivals are well attended and are potent factors in arousing and encouraging the community spirit. They stimulate healthful rivalry in the every day occupations of life and do much to make a pleasure of many things which might become mere matters of drudgery.

The fall festivals bring people to the trade center, not only from the immediate surrounding rural district, but they bring crowds of visitors from neighboring cities and towns within a wide radius.

The automobile has made it easy for folks to drive thirty, forty or fifty miles these beautiful fall afternoons and evenings and the pleasant hours spent at the fall festivals seeing what people of other communities are doing—how the farmers are getting along and how the city merchants are preparing to meet the demands of the community.

It's one of those good times which pays in dollars and cents in the information it enables one to gather up.

The fall festival—the pumpkin show—it all right.

May it grow and prosper.

Give Us the Mule

Just why a man with a mean, surly disposition should be called mulish has never been satisfactorily explained.

Some men have such mean dispositions that to liken them to a mule is an insult to the hard working, long eared quadruped who really has the excuse of ignorance to offer for some of his decidedly disagreeable inclinations and his insistence on occasions, in going contrary to orders.

Some men, unfortunately, have all the stubborn, disagreeable traits of the mule, but unlike the mule they know better and have decidedly more to be thankful for, in the way of advantages and blessings.

The mule is markedly short on opportunity and shy of things to be thankful for. He starts in life handicapped by birth and generally his social relations with the other members of the quadruped family are not such as would tend to create cheerful thoughts and pleasant contemplation.

His future is not bright with promise of anything better. The mule has, if not a complete defense, a decidedly forced excuse for his surly spells.

Viewed from any angle the mule has the best of the argument. Of the two, mean man and mule, we prefer the mule. He is the best citizen by all odds.

Poetry For Today

THE OPENING GATES.

Now the gates of the evening swung wide
 And the spirit of evening spoke rest,
 While the hungering heart of me cried
 And the wandering feet of me pressed
 Solemn, wave-beaten, wind-beaten shoes looking forth on the fargleaming west.

From the place of the sun to the sea
 From the sea to the lap of the land;
 All unfettered and flaming and free
 Did the glow and the glory expand
 Till they throbbed in wild pulses of fire through the wave and the golden-ribbed sand.

Where the breast of each billow ran dark
 To the ridge of the down-falling dome,
 Flashed a spirit of flame, like a spark
 Through the last little curl of the comb;
 And deep champfered with furrows of gold were the floors of the onracing foam.

Devastated Region the Scene of Proposed Reclamation, 7,000 Square Miles Being Inundated—Appeals For Assistance Sent to Foreign Countries—State Department Receives Report From American Consul.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Dispatches received here state that nearly 1,000,000 people have been made homeless by one of the greatest floods on record in that section of China where the American Red Cross already has spent $600,000 for flood protection and where the $30,000,000 loan for reclamation work, which was postponed by the war, was to have been spent. Reports to the state department from the American consul at Nanking said the Hwai river had inundated an area of about 7,000 square miles in Anhui province. Appeals for aid have been sent out for the homeless, who virtually are entirely dependent on charity, as all the autumn crops were destroyed.

The flood occurred in a very flat, alluvial section, where the north-to-south passage of the Grand canal had dammed up a large lake and allowed the Hwai canal too little space to carry off the water.

In the case of previous floods in that district, the waters have been held for long periods by alluvial soil.

In the great flood of 1909 nearly 1,000,000 lives were lost. Soon afterward C. O. Jameson, an American engineer, was sent to China to work out a reclamation system. In 1914 Colonel Siebert of the Panama canal headed a Red Cross commission which approved Jameson's plans, and the Chinese government began arrangements for a $3,000,000 loan to put them into effect. The European war, however, made it impossible to raise the capital.

MOVEMENT FOR CHARTER GOVERNMENT IS LAUNCHED

Business Men Name Committee to Take Up Movement to Call an Election and to Select Fifteen Reliable Citizens as Candidates for Charter Framers.

After an earnest discussion in which more than a score of prominent business men took deep interest at their Thursday noon luncheon, they took action which formally launched the move for a charter form of government, and went on record as being firmly behind the movement for a better form of municipal government for this city.

A motion was adopted to choose a committee for the purpose of carefully selecting fifteen representative men of the city to be recognized as the candidates for charter framers, whom they firmly believe will deal fairly with all problems in connection with framing a charter to be offered to Washington citizens for their approval.

The committee, with Chairman Worthington consists of Messrs. Earl McLean, Ed Fite, Rev. W. B. Gage, Herbert Brownell, E. L. Bush, Willard Willis, Walter Craig, and Clarence Baer.

One of the duties of these men, it was announced, will be to very carefully select fifteen men to be placed in nomination as candidates for commissioners, and the committee is to report back at the session next Thursday, when many additional citizens are expected to be present. It was also voted to proceed without delay in calling for an election to select fifteen men as charter framers, and in all probability council will be asked to call an election without the formality of a petition, that body having in their power to initiate the movement in that manner. This would eliminate the necessity of the petitions.

It was the sense of the meeting that each one work untiringly for the charter form of government, and to interest all citizens in the movement. It was made clear that the assistance of every citizen of Washington who wants the best possible form of government is desired and home rule whereby every dollar will be made to do a dollar's worth of good, and where there will be no division of government as at the present time, and as has been the case to a greater or less degree for many years.

In the near future Mr. Fred L. Rike, of Dayton, and Mr. Chas. Ashburner, Springfield's City Manager, will be invited to the city to address a mass meeting of citizens.

Recobs formerly lived near Heglers, and served three years with the United States Marines.

He has been in trouble before. Recobs was wanted in Clarke county, it is stated, for purloining a suit of clothes and $37 in cash from the home of L. A. Hawkins, of near Plattsburg.

In this connection the Springfield Sun says:

"The residence of Hawkins was burglarized Monday night and a suit of clothes and $37 taken. Hawkins came to this city yesterday and pointed out Recob to the police as having been in the neighborhood of Plattsburg. Some time afterward it was found that Recob was wanted at Washington C. H. as word was received here several weeks ago to arrest the man, according to local police."

HEARING POSTPONED UNTIL OCTOBER 19

Because the defendant wished to have depositions taken in Chicago and other points, the hearing of Bert Shimp, charged with keeping a place where intoxicants were sold, was postponed from Thursday morning until October 19th.

Inspector Pennistun and others of the State Liquor License Commission were present to push the charges. The two colored men who operated here recently were not included among the witnesses of the State.

It is understood that depositions will be taken of men who sold certain cider collected at the Shimp place of business, and which is said to have shown a heavy percentage of alcohol. The accused was represented by J. D. Post and F. A. Chaffin.

A sample of cider was collected at the Elder pool room by the inspectors, Thursday morning. Cider being dispensed in this city is retailing at 25c per quart or $1 per gallon, according to the inspectors.

ASKING WHY WATER TANK NOT REPLACED

Persons who for years have been in the habit of watering their thirsty horses at a public water tank located on Paint street just off the intersection with North street, are beginning to ask why the city has not replaced the tank removed last spring to permit paving at that point.

The old tank was located on the street, and was somewhat of an obstruction, but those who had been in the habit of making use of the tank by permitting their thirsty horses to drink, point out that the new tank which they understood the city was to erect at that point, could be placed even with the curb line and yet be easily reached.

The tank in question is one of a number for which the water company furnishes water without charge to the city. Those desiring the tank replaced talk of asking the Humane Society for assistance in speedily obtaining such a tank, believing it a humane necessity.

SPECIAL PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

The high school will put on a special literary program Friday afternoon at the auditorium.

The school part of the program will be a sketch of the composers, with the story of several operas and records of their leading melodies, played on the talking machine with the double purpose of showing how the machine can be used in school work and to familiarize pupils with this kind of music.

Davis Edwards, who soon returns to Chicago University, has kindly consented to give "The Revenge," Tennyson, the reading which won for him the prize at Chicago University, and also Kiplings "Ballad of the East and West," and Miss Lillian Davis will favor the guests with a piano solo.

HEARING IS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

The hearing of Sherman Dixon, arrested in Dayton on a charge of non-support, will take place before Justice T. N. Craig, Wednesday of next week, according to arrangements made Thursday morning.

Meanwhile Dixon will remain in the county jail.

Man Supposed to Be Suffering From Mental Aberration Leaves Family in Destitute Circumstances After Driving Off With Another Man's Horse and Buggy—A Strange Case.

A strange case came to light in this city, Thursday morning, when E. L. Albright, who owns the old Millikan farm near Waterloo, appeared and claimed a horse and buggy which had been left at the Crone livery barn Tuesday, by a man who is said to have left for parts unknown and to be irresponsible for his acts.

Tuesday morning James Relford, a farm hand, obtained the Albright horse and buggy ostensibly to drive into New Holland and obtain a stove. When night came and the man did not return, a search was started and kept up until Thursday morning when the horse and buggy were found in the Crone barn where Relford had left them.

Relford was seen boarding the west bound B. & O. train the same day that he left the outfit here, and since that time has not been heard from.

The man's father accompanied Mr. Albright to this city, and while here stated that several years ago while James and a brother were in

$100 IS PRICE OF THIS SUIT

"Don't you think that is just a little steep?" asked Homer Recobs, young man arrested in Springfield, after Mayor Oster had fined him $100 and the costs for stealing a suit of clothes from Warren Williams, of this city.

"Not a bit of it; you should have thought of this when you stole that suit of clothes you are wearing," was the answer he received to his complaint that the fine was too heavy.

Recobs, when arraigned, admitted stealing the clothes, which he said were valued at $10.

"I'll be a man about it, and will admit that the suit I got is the one I am wearing," admitted Recobs.

Recobs had no money and was ordered committed to the workhouse. It was expected that he would be taken to the works before the day ended.

EXCELLENT W. C. T. U. SESSIONS

The County W. C. T. U. convention was held in Grace M. E. church all day Thursday, with immense interest and a good attendance.

The executive session opened at 9.30, with Mrs. Alice Taggart, county president, in the chair.

Following devotionals there was discussion of a business nature and it was decided to hold all future conventions in Washington C. H. It was also decided to abolish the noon tide luncheon, each delegate providing for personal wants.

The receipts from cook books were reported $102.50. There was extended discussion over question cards sent out by the state asking that superintendents answer them.

The questions are often complicated and it was voted to write to the state W. C. T. U. organization asking that these questions be simplified if possible.

At ten o'clock Mrs. Taggart called the regular session to order with the usual devotional exercises. There was a fervent session of prayer, voiced by many ladies present.

The secretary, Miss Laura Pine, read the minutes of the executive session, after which there were short reports by the presidents of the unions, Mrs. Taggart of Jeffersonville; Mrs. Laura York of Good Hope; Mrs. Pearl Darlington, Sugar Grove; Mrs. Mary Stafford, Washington; Mrs. Hallie King of Madison Mills; Miss Butcher, Cooke; Miss Cora Foster, Bloomingburg; Mrs. David Allen, of West Lancaster; Mrs. Alice Roberts, Staunton.

The report of the corresponding secretary, Miss Icy Allen of Jeffersonville, showed eleven unions in the county, with an active membership of 325; honorary members, 10 sustaining members, 7, and Y. P. B., 50.

The report also showed 113 subscribers to the Ohio Messenger; 12 to the Union Signal; 23 to the Young Crusaders' Monthly, and 11,945 pages of literature distributed. Thirteen dollars has been paid into the Frances Willard Memorial fund.

Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, treasurer, reported a balance of $41.69 in the treasury.

The treasurer and corresponding secretary were appointed a credential committee to ascertain the number of voting delegates, of whom there were 31 present.

The annual election of officers resulted in the re-election of the present competent officers. Mrs. Alice Roberts, Mrs. Hulda McGrew and Mrs. Eva Post were appointed a committee to consider the department superintendents for the coming year.

Mrs. Post, Supt. of Mothers' Meetings, reported 13 held this year.

As the noontide hour arrived Mrs. Kate Roberts, a county president of Tennessee, voiced a prayer and adjournment was taken until the afternoon session.

In Social Circles

The September meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society was a most delightful one in every sense of the word, held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. B. Hall. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames Sites, J. L. Persinger, Crooks, Fitzgerald, Madona, Noble, Probasco, Hutchison, F. C. Mallow, Carl Mallow, Coil, Jesse Persinger, Edwards, Miss Lillie Bruck.

The topic for the day was fitting for the consideration of the great country, Africa—"The People that walked in darkness have seen a great light."

After the opening service, led by President Mrs. Aus. Hopkins, reports of secretaries and treasurer were followed by nomination of officers for the next year and the reading of a letter from the President of Presbyterian Society, Mrs. Shields, giving greetings to the society and pungent suggestions as to the work for the coming year.

The box work report spoke well for the interest of the society in school work in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Walker had the program in charge, the first number being a paper by Mrs. Blakeley, "Our Goals; Ways to Reach Them."

The three watchwords for the year, Faith, Service and Prayer, were emphasized for successful missionary work.

Mrs. Pliley gave "Half a Century. Growth of Mission Work," showing what had developed in Africa, especially and the wonderful results in Elat for this last half century. These papers were full of information. An appreciated surprise was a solo by Mrs. Hugh H. Hudson, of Charlottesville, Va., "Why Did You Not Tell Me Sooner." She gave some interesting stories of the southern people in their work from the personal acquaintance.

A social hour and refreshments were much enjoyed by the sixty ladies present at the meeting.

Mrs. Raymond Hammer, Mrs. Deiner of Cleveland, and Mrs. Riley of Kentucky, were guests.

The home was beautified with a wealth of asters, cosmos, dahlias and goldenrod.

Complimenting Miss Juanita Deere, of Chicago, Mrs. Anna Bu. Coffman charmingly entertained with cards Wednesday afternoon.

Four tables of the younger girls enjoyed a merry game and also the opportunity of meeting the attractive honor guest.

The artistic taste of the hostess was displayed in effectively placed vases of fall flowers and tiny baskets of pink and lavender garden flowers were lovely in the center of each small table. A delicious reception followed the game.

Mrs. Elmer Junk and Miss Alice Looftborrow assisted the hostess in the hospitalities.

The guests were: Misses Deere, Lillian Davis, Carrie Willis, Helen Harper, Marie Tharp, Regina McDonald, Jane Paul, Ruth Reid, Gretchen and Dorris Willis, Helen Baker, Ada Woodward, Katharine Rothrock, Wanda Wolford, Marine Lannum, Mrs. Loring Brock.

Mrs. O. E. Gwinn, whose daughter, Miss Frances Louise Gwinn, last evening became the bride of Mr. Warwick Inman Rowland, was hostess at a luncheon at noon at the Athletic Club, given in honor of her daughter and of her husband, Mr. O. E. Gwinn, whose birthday it was.—Tuesday's Ohio State Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCoy, of this city, were included in the guest list.

The bride, whose father was formerly president of the Gwinn Milling Co., of this city, has visited here frequently since the removal of her family to Columbus, and her nuptials are of interest to numerous friends retained in Washington.

The young matrons of the Monday Bridge club, with a table of additional guests, were indebted to Mrs. Martin Hughey for pleasurable entertainment Wednesday afternoon.

A profusion of pink and white cosmos were prettily used in the rooms and as centerpieces for the card tables, on which most tempting luncheon was served.

Mrs. Sherman Murry assisted, and Mrs. George Greene, of Oklahoma City, was an out of town guest.

Fifty friends and neighbors delightfully surprised Mrs. Newton Zimmerman to remind her of her thirty-fifth birthday, Wednesday evening at her home on the Bogus road.

The guests brought baskets for a picnic spread that was not the least of the evening's pleasures.

Mrs. Zimmerman and her husband rose to the occasion and gave their guests a hearty reception, everyone having a splendid time.

SURFACE CARS ARE ATTACKED

Rioting Renewed In Connection With Strike.

DYNAMITE PLOT BLOCKED

Sympathetic Strike of 700,000 Craftsmen Predicted, Following Failure of Mayor Mitchell's Efforts to Bring About a Solution of the Difficulty. Labor Leaders Hold Conferences in New York.

New York, Sept. 21.—Rioting was resumed here in connection with the strike of street railway employees, following failure of efforts on the part of Mayor Mitchell and others to effect a solution of the controversy. Several hundred strikers and their sympathizers, who attacked four surface cars, engaged in a running fight with police reserves, during which several persons, including a woman, were hurt. Many arrests were made. What the police characterized as a conspiracy to use dynamite in the strike was frustrated by the arrest of a man who asserted he was a striking motorman. The prisoner, it was said, had attempted to purchase explosives from a laborer in a new subway excavation. The latter reported the case to the authorities, who set a trap for the striker.

When Police Commissioner Woods was told that six-year-old Louis Rodell was dying, a victim of a brick hurled, he redoubled his efforts at clearing roof tops contiguous to the traction lines and went into conference with District Attorney Swan to provide for the speedy punishment of such offenders. The commissioner issued a warning to the strikers that all missile throwers hereafter will be given the limit.

Hope of averting the threatened strike of 700,000 union workers here in sympathy with the car men was diminished. Mayor Mitchell announced that a personal appeal he had made to transit company heads to treat with the strikers had met with a flat refusal. Meantime, preparations were continued by union leaders for the walkout which, if carried out, may paralyze industry throughout the greater city.

Apparently the only chance now of calling off the union officials in their determination "to tie up New York" by Monday next lies in a conference to be held between a citizens' committee and the strike leaders.

Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and twenty-five presidents of international unions, held a conference, but no definite action was taken regarding a general strike. It was said they would meet again Friday.

Approximately 10,000 women, wives of the striking car men and members of trade unions, it was announced, will act as pickets. It was said they contemplate riding on Broadway and elevated railway trains in efforts to induce the motormen and guards to desert their posts and join the union.

STONE DEFENDS WILSON'S COURSE

Replies to Attacks on Adamson Eight Hour Law.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—"A word about the so-called eight hour law as related to railroad operatives," by William J. Stone, senator from Missouri, was issued by the western national Democratic headquarters here. Accompanying the statement was an assertion that Senator Stone was representing the thought of the administration on the subject. The statement said in part:

"Messrs. Hughes, Roosevelt, Root, Pierpont Morgan and others maintain that the president and congress surrendered to force and thereby discredited public authority and weakened the foundations of our government institution. One weakness about this charge is that it is false. Nobody threatened the president or congress; nobody demanded anything of them. There was no controversy between the government and the railroad employees, nor between the government and the railroad management. The controversy was purely industrial, waged between several hundred thousand men who actually operate trains on the one hand and the managers of the railroads on the other.

"Mr. Hughes says the president should have investigated the questions at issue before acting. They seem to think that, although the house was on fire, the president should have inquired into the cause of the fire before putting it out, instead of first putting it out and then investigating the cause.

"I am amazed that Mr. Hughes would ally himself with Mr. Morgan, multimillionaire prince of Wall street, maker and wrecker of railroads, lord of the British exchequer in America."

HERRICK'S EXPENSE

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 21.—Declaring that every expenditure during his primary campaign, amounting to $22,150.76 by himself personally, and $28,508.76 by the voters' leagues bearing his name, was legitimate and, measured by the information at hand at the time, a necessity, Myron T. Herrick, Republican nominee for the United States senate, issued an itemized statement, showing for what purpose the money was expended. His personal account shows that $11,844.13 was spent on correspondence alone, while the Herrick Voters' league spent over half of what it did in the same way.

PEACEFUL

(By American Press)

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—Secretary of War Baker, in an address before the Business Men's league here, said that as secretary of war he had discovered that the army does not desire war.

"As a civilian," Mr. Baker said, "I believed that a standing army was a menace to free institutions and that the professional soldier desired war. But I want to make a confession to you. I have found as secretary of war that the entire army of the United States, from the commanding general to the last enlisted private, does not desire war. I know of no body of men who have a more singular devotion to duty than an army, and no body of men would be more willing to lay down their lives for their country."

"For three years the greater part of the American army has been on the Mexican border, and it has been put to the severest tests ever put upon soldiers. It has had a waiting job. It is easy to be a soldier when there is action; difficult where there is no action. While we have heard criticism and complaint from other sources, I want to say that there has never been a word of complaint relative to condition or service from any member of the regular army."

ENGLISH WAY

(By American Press)

London, Sept. 21.—The railway crisis arising out of the demands of the men for an increase of 10 shillings a week in their wages has been settled on the basis of doubling the war bonus. This is a compromise, giving the men half the 10 shillings demanded. The resumption of negotiations between the railway companies and representatives of the men, effected by mediation of Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, resulted in the settlement. The companies in earlier negotiations met the men's demand by an offer of 3 shillings and reference of the question of a further increase to arbitration.

HARD KNOCKS

(By American Press)

Milwaukee, Sept. 21.—Charles E. Hughes, before a cheering audience that filled the big auditorium, outlined his attitude toward the protection of American rights as follows:

"I propose that we shall protect and enforce American rights on land and sea, without fear and unflinchingly, with respect to American lives, American property and American commerce."

Mr. Hughes referred to subjects discussed in President Wilson's speech of acceptance. The shipping bill was characterized as "a menace, the sooner removed the better." The Underwood tariff he called a measure "that must be undone if we are to have a sure basis of prosperity in this country." The federal reserve act, the nominee said, far from being a Democratic measure, pure and simple, was taken in great part from material supplied by a Republican commission and a draft of a Republican bill.

WILSON OPTIMISTIC

(By American Press)

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 21.—Victory for the Democratic ticket in New York state in the November election was predicted by President Wilson following the receipt of returns from the primaries. The president indicated his belief that Progressive voters in New York will support the Democrats.

KILLED BY TRAIN

(By American Press)

Fremont, O., Sept. 21.—Walter White, fifty-one, residing northeast of town, was killed by a freight train at a crossing near Green Springs. White was hauling stone and failed to observe the train.

Like those hot biscuits on Sunday night—they satisfy!

"Please pass the biscuits." And as those hot, crisp morsels melt in your mouth, they certainly do taste good. Best of all—they satisfy. Just what Chesterfields do for your smoking—they satisfy!

But, Chesterfields are MILD, too!

For the first time in cigarette history, you are offered a cigarette that satisfies, and yet is mild. Chesterfield!

Smokers realize that this is new enjoyment for a cigarette to give. And no other cigarette can give it to them—because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

Today—try Chesterfields.

WARDEN THOMAS DEFENDS ACTIONS

More Work For Prisoners the Crying Need, He Says.

Columbus, Sept. 21.—Methods which Warden Thomas of the penitentiary uses in the selection of "trusties" or "honor prisoners" and the methods that Chairman C. C. Philbrick of the state board of administration would use if he were warden were brought into contrast at a session of the penitentiary investigation. The warden declared a convict first must prove himself a "man" before he will allow him to go out as an honor prisoner. Philbrick said if he were warden he would take every man now in the idle house and put him to work in shops or place him out on farms of state institutions over the state. If they would escape he would have the state pay a reward for their return. Philbrick asserted. "If I had to be confinned in that idle house, I'd be unruly, too," exclaimed Philbrick, pounding on the table.

The warden explained on the stand that the crying need of the penitentiary is more work for the prisoners, but that as long as no means have been found to put more to work, some must be idle. The board of administration has been unable to provide sufficient work for the prisoners since the contract labor system has been given up.

Further testimony will be heard only on points in the accusations which the board thinks have not been satisfactorily touched upon, met or answered. These points are believed to be few, for many of the witnesses subpoenaed by the complainants gave testimony only in defense of the warden and his administration.

TO PAY INDEMNITY

Washington, Sept. 21.—Germany will pay an indemnity or all American lives lost in the sinking of the Lusitania. State department officials made this plain in discussing the court action in New York in which the Cunard Steamship company was told it must limit its damage suits to $91,296, the amount received by it for fares and freight on the big liner sunk by the submarine off the Irish coast.

ALLIES LOSE HALF A MILLION

(By American Press)

Berlin, Sept. 21.—Up to Sept. 15 the total losses of the allies on the Somme front were 500,000 men, according to estimates made in an official review of operations issued here. This fixed the British losses at 350,000 and the French at 150,000. In their offensive, says the review, the Anglo-French forces have conquered only 1,500 square kilometers, or 3 per cent of the total territory held by the Germans in Belgium and France.

SAVES THE FARMERS

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 21.—With twenty cow testing associations Ohio leads the Union in the number of associations organized in the last twelve months and ranks second in the number in operation. A saving of thousands of dollars is made by the farmers annually through these organizations, according to the annual report of the agricultural college extension service of the Ohio State university.

LIMITED WRECKED

(By American Press)

Kingman, Ariz., Sept. 21.—Engineer R. W. Cholson and Fireman H. A. Osborne were killed and passengers on the California limited were badly shaken up when the train was derailed several miles east of here. The train, which is one of the finest on the Santa Fe system, tore down telegraph poles and wires when it left the tracks and communication with points where aid could be secured was long delayed. Mrs. George Ostermeyer of Topeka, Kan., was the only passenger badly injured and she will recover. The cause of the derailment is undetermined.

THE OTHER WAY

(By American Press)

Danville, Ill., Sept. 21.—The old order of things was reversed here when the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad brought suit against the estate of Harper Daniels for $10,000. The railroad charges that Daniels drove his automobile in front of the "Florida flyer" at Bismarck Junction last June, ditching the train and causing damage to it and to the roadbed amounting to $10,000. Mrs. Charles Everhart, widow of the engineer of the train, sued the road for the same amount. Her husband died a month after the accident from burns.

Lewis Gun "Makes Good" on Firing Line; Rejected By American Ordnance Expert

headed by General William Crozier, are greatly wrought up by the assertion that the Lewis machine gun rejected by the United States army has proved its great worth on the British firing line in France. The Lewis gun was invented by Colonel Isaac N. Lewis, United States army, retired, and was offered free to the Washington government. It is a two six pound rapid firer. The British army has more than 30,000 Lewis guns, the American army has about 200. No. 1 in the pictures, British soldiers using machine gun in trenches; No. 2, General von Donop, British master of ordnance, who approved the Lewis gun, and No. 3, General Crozier, who prefers others; No. 4, British machine gunners with gas masks; No. 5, Colonel Lewis, inventor of the gun.

TRAINS COLLIDE AT B. & O. CROSSING THIS AFTERNOON

An ugly smash up occurred at the Union Depot crossing this afternoon about 2 o'clock, when a cut of cars on the D. T. & I. railroad drawn by the locomotive backing north toward the crossing, crashed into some freight cars which the B. & O. special freight was backing east over the crossing.

No one was injured but the property loss is considerable. The tender of the D. T. & I. engine was thrown over against the train sheds and the engine put out of commission. The freight car struck squarely by the tender of the D. T. & I. engine was reduced to junk and scattered over the crossing, blocking all three roads and holding up all trains.

It will be several hours before the wreckage is cleared away. The cause of the collision has not yet been determined. The B. & O. seemed to have the right of way and just why the D. T. & I. crew backed in to the crossing is not clear. A rigid investigation will be made and the blame fixed.
